COMMENTS:

Anthony Rainey is requesting a waiver for failing to timely file his 2018 Candidate Amendment for the 10/12/2019 Election. Mr. Rainey stated he ran for the Terrebonne Parish City Council because he wanted to help his "community and the parish as a whole to become better". He stated his disclosure was incorrect due to a misunderstanding, but he has since made the corrections. Mr. Rainey said as of October 12, 2020, he is on a fixed income and this fine would be a hardship on him, as he is no longer working for at the Recreation Department. He may be able to pay $100 a month, but would have to borrow that money from a friend. He asks the Ethics Board to please help him with this matter.

This is Mr. Rainey's first late filing and first late fee assessment.

Hi my name is Anthony B. Diney Sr.
I ran for Council in Terrebonne Parish District #2 in which I lost. I tried to Help my Community and Parish as a whole to become better. I'm writing you to ask for a waiver in the fees that I have due to a misunderstanding on my part work in which I corrected it would be a hardship for me to pay because I'm on a fix income and as of Oct. 12, 2020 I no longer work for the Recreation Dept. I'm also pay a 100% a month for a problem that occurs and I didn't know in which I have to pay back the Campy fund. Could you please be helpful in the matter with me

Yours Truly
